Peachy ,

Congrats to everyone that ran the New York City Marathon on Sunday. The weather was perfect (almost, it did warm up at the end) and we had our team (pictured above) take on the Big Apple! While we are still gathering everyone's own experience and how they did, we did want to say thank you to the New York Road Runners for putting on such an awesome event! Not to mention the crowds. The crowds were everywhere and the cheering was almost deafening in some parts. There's no need to run with music because you're probably not going to hear most of it. Lastly, we'd like to thank one of the race sponsors, New Balance. Their team did a fantastic job welcoming us. We got to meet several of the product designers for shoes like the brand new 1080v13 and the Fuel Cell product line. It's an experience none of us are likely to forget. New York City did not disappoint and if it's a race you're considering, you should definitely do it.
